Shopkin Swapkin Night

Thank you to everyone who participated in Shopkin Swapkin Night. We had a great time trading shokins, playing bingo, searching for hidden shopkins and creating a replica of the exclusive shopkin GEMMA! Check the website or the studio facebook page to see photos from our 1st Parents Night Out event!

Costume payments

Costume payments are currently past due. Please be sure to submit the costume form with payment. All costume payments MUST include a $15.00 late fee per costume for EACH month it is past due.

Project Move: Hip hop Master Class w/ Michelle

See included flyer: Please preregister for class

We are very excited to host our 2nd workshop in our program "Project Move" with CT native and B.A.D & EnFuego Alumni; Michelle Montano. Michelle moved to LA to peruse her career after being part of The United Project & Motivating Excellence under the direction of Rhapsody James. Michelle currently resides in LA and is signed to Go2Talent. Since being in LA she has performed in various events, commercials, and in the RichFam Production Villains. Michelle is thrilled to be an official member of Andye Jamieson's MAJ program where she will be traveling and assisting with Andye. Michelle is excited to come to CT and share her passion for dance with the next generations

Winter is fast approaching

You would not realize it with this warm weather but winter is on its way. Please be sure you have signed up for the studio remind 101 group (text @badance15 to 81010 ) and your individual class remind 101 group. Also be sure to check channel 30, the studio Facebook and Instagram pages as well as the website after 1pm for all studio closings due to weather.

BAD Welcomes Ms. Laurie

We are thrilled to welcome Ms. Laurie to our front desk staff. Ms. Laurie has been a part of Ms. Kim's Dance journey since it began in 2003 with EnFuego Company. Both of her daughters have spent their dance years at BAD and been part of the original EnFuego company dancers. Ms. Laurie is excited to be part of the BAD staff and looks forward to a great dance season.
